Growing up on the east coast, Chef Dan Noble always Wanted to do something hands-on to create something memorable and unique. He found his calling working for a local restaurant after High School. A graduate of the prestigious Culinary Institute of America and training in Spain and Argentina, Chef Dan developed an Appreciation for fresh seasonal ingredients that provide a dinner with full flavor and nutritional enjoyment.

Creatively deploying Indiana homegrown ingredients, Chef Dan has developed his acclaimed “eat local” menus to showcase the products of Indiana farmers. Every recipe is carefully designed to celebrate the full flavor of each product while also ensuring a uniquely crafted plate. His creations have gained local and regional attention not only for being delicious, but for the artistry of his meal presentations.

Please enjoy this gift of culinary delights from Executive Chef Dan Noble. Find out more about his work by visiting our website at www.universityplace.iupui.edu.
